What is this product?

Bosera Hong Kong Equity Plus Fund (the “Sub-Fund”) is a sub-fund of the Bosera Global Public Funds Series Open-ended Fund Company (“Company”), which is a public umbrella open-ended fund company established under Hong Kong law with variable capital with limited liability and segregated liability between sub-funds.

The ongoing charges figure is based on the annualised ongoing expenses of the respective class for the period from 1 January 2023 to 31 December 2023. It represents the sum of the ongoing expenses chargeable to the Sub-Fund for the above corresponding period expressed as a percentage of the Sub-Fund's average Net Asset Value over the same period, annualized to give an ongoing charges figure over a year. This figure may vary from year to year.

* From 28 April 2023, the ongoing charges figure (Exclusive of performance fee) for each class of Shares is capped at a maximum of 3% of the average net asset value for each class. Any excess of ongoing expenses of the Sub-Fund will be borne by the Manager and will not be charged to the Sub-Fund if such expense would result in the ongoing charges figure (Exclusive of performance fee) exceeding 3%.

^ These figures are the Manager's best estimate of the expenses and the average net asset value of the respective classes based on information available on other classes already launched with a similar fee structure, as these classes are newly established or had no asset under management during part or all of the corresponding period. The actual figures may be different upon actual operation of the classes and may vary from year to year.

Objectives and Investment Strategy*Objective

The Sub-Fund aims to generate long-term capital appreciation primarily through investments in equity securities with a China focus. There can be no assurance that the Sub-Fund will achieve its investment objective.

Strategy

The Sub-Fund seeks to achieve its objective by investing primarily (i.e. not less than 80% of its NAV) directly or indirectly in companies established in China or, if established outside China, derive a significant portion of their revenue from business activities related to China, or have significant assets, business, production, trading activity or other interests in China. Such investments are based on the professional judgement of the Manager and whose reasons for investment may include a favourable outlook on the stock issuer and the expected changes in the value of such investments due to the market circumstances changes. Up to 100% of the Sub-Fund's NAV may be invested in emerging markets.

At least 70% of the Sub-Fund's NAV will be invested in securities listed on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("HKEX"). The Manager may also invest up to 20% of the Sub-Fund's NAV in A-Shares and/or B-Shares listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange or the Shenzhen Stock Exchange. Exposure to A-Shares and/or B-Shares may be obtained directly, via, in the case of A-shares, the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect or the Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect (together, the "Stock Connect") or, in the case of A-Shares and B-Shares, the Manager's RQFII status, or indirectly through convertible bonds, exchange traded funds ("ETFs") or other collective investment schemes, financial derivative instruments ("FDIs") such as participation notes, futures and options. Investments in ETFs are considered and treated as listed securities for the purposes of and subject to the requirements in Chapters 7.1, 7.1A and 7.2 of the Code of Unit Trusts and Mutual Funds (the "Code").

The Sub-Fund may invest up to 30% of its NAV in other collective investment schemes which are eligible schemes (as defined in the Code) or authorised by the SFC. Up to 10% of the Sub-Fund's NAV may be invested in non-eligible scheme and not authorised by the SFC.

The Sub-Fund may invest in securities being offered in an initial public offering to be listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange, the Shenzhen Stock Exchange, the HKEX, or stock exchanges in the United States and/or other stock exchanges subject to the limit set out above.

The Sub-Fund will make investments into listed companies that, in the Manager's opinion, have been undervalued by the market due to various reasons such as lack of research coverage and misunderstanding of the fundamentals. The Sub-Fund does not attempt to follow any benchmark indices in determining its sector or individual stock weightings and there is no fixed sector weightings in the allocation of assets of the Sub-Fund.

The Sub-Fund may use FDIs for hedging and/or investment purposes to the extent permitted by the Code. The Sub-Fund may take short positions through FDIs for hedging purposes only.

The Sub-Fund may engage in short sales in accordance with the Code and may use assets of the Sub-Fund as collateral in respect of such short sales. No short sale may be made by the Sub-Fund which will result in the Sub-Fund's liability to deliver securities exceeding 10% of its NAV. For the avoidance of doubt, the Sub-Fund will not carry out any naked or uncovered short sale. Under normal market conditions, the Sub-Fund may hold no more than 20% of NAV in cash or cash equivalents (including money market funds), for use as collateral or as otherwise considered appropriate to the investment objective. Under exceptional circumstances (e.g. satisfying large redemption requests, market crash or major crisis), this percentage may be temporarily increased to up to 50% for cash flow management.

The Sub-Fund currently has no intention to invest in structured deposits, structured products or over-the-counter securities, and the Manager will not enter into any securities lending, sale and repurchase or reverse-repurchase transactions in respect of the Sub-Fund. The Sub-Fund will not invest in collateralised and/or securitised securities (including asset backed commercial papers and mortgage backed securities). If any of this changes in the future, prior approval of the SFC will be sought (if required) and not less than one month's notice will be provided to Shareholders before the Sub-Fund enters into any such transaction.

The Sub-Fund generally seeks to hedge the foreign currency exposure of any hedged share class to the base currency, with the aim of reducing the impact of currency fluctuations of the relevant class currency against the base currency. The effects of hedging will be reflected in the NAV per Share of the relevant hedged class. Similarly, any expenses arising from such hedging transactions will be borne by the relevant hedged Class.

Use of derivatives / Investment in derivatives

The Sub-Fund's net derivative exposure may be up to 50% of its Net Asset Value.

What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the Explanatory Memorandum for details including the risk factors.

1. Investment risk

- Investors should be aware that investment in any Sub-Fund is subject to normal market fluctuations and other risks inherent in the underlying assets into which the Sub-Fund may invest. The Sub-Fund's investment portfolio may fall in value. There can be no assurance that any appreciation in value of investments will occur. There is no guarantee of the repayment of principal. There is no assurance that the investment objectives of a Sub-Fund will actually be achieved, notwithstanding the efforts of the Manager since changes in political, financial, economic, social and/or legal conditions are not within the control of the Manager. Accordingly, there is a risk that investors may not recoup the original amount invested in a Sub-Fund or may lose a substantial part or all of their initial investment.

2. Currency risk

- Underlying investments of the Sub-Fund may be denominated in currencies other than the base currency of the Sub-Fund. Also, a class of Shares of the Sub-Fund may be designated in a currency other than the base currency of the Sub-Fund. The NAV of the Sub-Fund may be affected unfavourably by fluctuations in the exchange rates between these currencies and the base currency and by changes in exchange rate controls.

3. Equity market risk

- The Sub-Fund's investment in equity securities is subject to general market risks, whose value may fluctuate due to various factors, such as changes in investment sentiment, political and economic conditions and issuer-specific factors.
- The stock of small-capitalisation/mid-capitalisation companies may have lower liquidity and their prices are more volatile to adverse economic developments than those of larger capitalisation companies in general.

4. Concentration risk

- The Sub-Fund's investments are concentrated in Mainland China and Hong Kong. This may result in greater volatility than portfolios which comprise broad-based global investments. The value of the Sub-Fund may be more susceptible to adverse economic, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal or regulatory event affecting the Mainland China and Hong Kong market.

5. Emerging market risk

- The Sub-Fund will invest in emerging markets, which are subject to increased risks and special considerations not typically associated with investment in more developed markets, such as liquidity risks, currency risks/control, political and economic uncertainties, legal and taxation risks, settlement risks, custody risk and the likelihood of a high degree of volatility.

6. RMB currency risk

- The RMB is not a freely convertible currency as it is subject to foreign exchange control policies and repatriation restrictions imposed by the Chinese government. Such government policies and restrictions are subject to change, and there can be no assurance that the RMB exchange rate will not fluctuate widely against the US dollar or any other foreign currency in the future.
- The Sub-Fund's portfolio will be primarily denominated in HKD. Where an investor subscribes for Shares denominated in RMB, the Manager may convert such subscription monies into HKD or USD prior to investment at the applicable exchange rate and subject to the applicable spread. Where an investor redeems Shares denominated in RMB, the Manager may sell the Sub-Fund's portfolio investments and then convert the proceeds of sale into RMB at the applicable exchange rate and subject to the applicable spread. In such case an investor may enjoy a gain in HKD (or USD) terms but suffer a loss when converting currencies between HKD (or USD) and RMB. Any depreciation of RMB could adversely affect the value of the investor's investment in the Sub-Fund.
- In calculating the NAV of a class of Shares denominated in RMB and in effecting any currency conversions involving RMB, the Manager will apply the CNH rate (i.e. the exchange rate for the offshore RMB market in Hong Kong). Whilst the RMB (CNH) and RMB (CNY) represent the same currency, they are traded in different rates and separate markets which operate independently. As such, RMB (CNH) may trade at a premium or discount to RMB (CNY) and they may even move in different directions. Any divergence between RMB (CNH) and RMB (CNY) may adversely impact investors. Non-RMB based investors are exposed to foreign exchange risk and there is no guarantee that the value of RMB against the investors' base currencies (e.g. HKD) will not depreciate. Any depreciation of RMB could adversely affect the value of investor's investment in the Sub-Fund.
- Under exceptional circumstances, payment of redemptions in RMB may be delayed due to the exchange controls and restrictions applicable to RMB.

7. Hedged class risk

- Investors in hedged classes bear the associated costs and may also be exposed to the risks associated with the instruments used in the hedging process. There is no guarantee that the desired hedging instruments will be available or that the hedging techniques employed by the Manager will be effective in achieving their desired result. Hedging can also limit potential gains of a hedged share class. Whilst hedging may protect investors against a decrease in the value of the base currency relative to the relevant class currency, it may also preclude investors from benefitting from any increase in value of the base currency. Investors should also be aware that the volatility of a hedged class may be higher than that of the equivalent class denominated in the Sub-Fund’s base currency.
- 8. Performance fee risk
- Performance fees may encourage the Manager to make riskier investments than would be the case in the absence of a performance-based incentive system.
  - Given there is no equalisation arrangement for the calculation of the performance fee, a Shareholder redeeming shares may still incur performance fee in respect of the shares, even though a loss in investment capital has been suffered by the redeeming Shareholder.
  - In addition, performance fees may be paid on unrealized gains which may never be realised by the Sub-Fund.
- 9. Risks associated with investment in FDIs
- Risks associated with FDIs include counterparty/credit risk, liquidity risk, valuation risk, volatility risk and over-the-counter transaction risk. The leverage element / component of a derivative instrument can result in a loss significantly greater than the amount invested in the derivative instrument by the Sub-Fund. Exposure to derivatives may lead to a high risk of significant loss by the Sub-Fund.
- 10. Risks of investing in other collective investment schemes/funds
- The Sub-Fund may invest in units in any unit trust or shares in any mutual fund corporation or any other collective investment scheme. The underlying collective investment schemes/funds in which the Sub-Fund may invest may not be regulated by the SFC. There may be additional costs involved when investing into these underlying collective investment schemes/funds. There is also no guarantee that the underlying collective investment schemes/funds will always have sufficient liquidity to meet the Sub-Fund’s redemption requests as and when made.
- 11. Risks associated with distribution out of/effectively out of the Sub-Fund’s capital
- Payment of dividends out of capital and/or effectively out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor’s original investment or from any capital gains attributable to that original investments. Any such distributions may result in an immediate reduction of the NAV per Share of the Sub-Fund.
  - The distribution amount and NAV of the hedged share classes may be adversely affected by differences in the interest rates of the reference currency of the relevant hedged share class and the Sub-Fund’s base currency, resulting in an increase in the amount of distribution that is paid out of capital and hence a greater erosion of capital than other non-hedged share classes.

How has the Sub-Fund performed?

- Past performance information is not indicative of future performance. Investors may not get back the full amount invested.
- The computation basis of the performance is based on the calendar year end, NAV-to-NAV, with dividend (if any) reinvested.
  - Class A HKD Shares have been selected as the representative share class of the fund for the purpose of presenting past performance information on the basis that it is the authorised retail class with the longest track record in Hong Kong.

- These figures show by how much the Class A HKD Shares increased or decreased in value during the calendar year shown. Performance data has been calculated in HKD including ongoing charges and excluding subscription fee you might have to pay.
- Where no past performance is shown there was insufficient data available that year to provide performance.
- Fund launch date: 12th November 2021
- Class A HKD Shares launch date: 12th November 2021

Is there any guarantee?

The Sub-Fund does not have any guarantees. You may not get back the full amount of money you invest.

What are the fees and charges?

Charges which may be payable by you

You may have to pay the following fees when dealing in the Shares of the Sub-Fund.

Fee	What you pay
	Class A Shares	Class S Shares

	lower than or equal to the high watermark, any performance fee accrual will be reversed and no performance fee will be accrued. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Each performance period corresponds to a financial year of the Sub-Fund.</li> <li>• If any Shares are redeemed part way through a performance period, accrued performance fee will be crystallised, set aside and payable to the Manager as soon as practicable.</li> <li>• For details and illustrative examples of the performance fee calculation, please refer to the section headed “Performance fee” in Appendix 1 of the Explanatory Memorandum.</li> </ul>
Custodian fee	Up to 0.1 %*, subject to a minimum monthly fee of HK$5,000.

Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when dealing in the Shares of the Sub-Fund.

* Please note that some fees may be increased up to a permitted maximum amount by providing one month’s prior notice to Shareholders. Please refer to the section headed “Expenses and Charges” in the Explanatory Memorandum for further details of the fees and charges payable and the permitted maximum of such fee allowed, as well as other ongoing expenses that may be borne by the Sub-Fund.

Additional information

- You generally buy and redeem Shares at the Sub-Fund’s next-determined NAV after the Custodian receives your request, directly or via a distributor, in good order at or before 4:00p.m., being the Sub-Fund’s dealing cut-off time on each dealing day of the Sub-Fund. Before placing your subscription or redemption orders, please check with your distributor for the distributor’s internal dealing cut-off time (which may be earlier than the Sub-Fund’s dealing cut-off time).
- The NAV of the Sub-Fund is calculated and the price of Shares published each business day on the website www.bosera.com.hk (this website has not been reviewed by the SFC).
- The compositions of the dividends (i.e. the relative amounts paid out of (i) net distributable income and (ii) capital) for the last 12 months are available by the Manager on request and on the website www.bosera.com.hk (this website has not been reviewed by the SFC).
- You may obtain information on the distributor(s) in respect of the Sub-Fund by contacting the Manager at 2537 6658
